Exercise 1: Questions 1 – 5

For questions 1 – 5, you will hear a series of short statements. Answer each question on the line provided. Your answer should be as brief as possible. You will hear each statement twice.

1. Marisa Bellis explains why people might not enjoy a movie featuring animals. Give one reason why they may not enjoy it.

............................................................................................................................ [1]

2. Operation Smile is a non-profit medical service. How much will a patient pay to receive this service?

............................................................................................................................ [1]

3. A local newspaper advertises a monthly events calendar. How many artists will perform in Katutura in September?

............................................................................................................................ [1]

4. A journalist interviews a famous actress. Name one reason why she believes she is a bad celebrity.

............................................................................................................................ [1]

5. A new lodge will soon open in Khorixas. The following advertisement is posted in the local newspaper. What must you do if you want to stay at the lodge?

............................................................................................................................ [1]
Exercise 2: Questions 6 – 10

Listen to an article about the usage of synthetic blood to save lives and tick (✓) whether the statement is true or false in the appropriate box. You will hear the article twice.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>True</th>
<th>False</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>A substitute for blood can save lives.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>Real blood can be kept for years before using it.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8</td>
<td>Synthetic blood is also divided into blood types.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9</td>
<td>During emergencies time is not an issue.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10</td>
<td>The substitute blood cells are much smaller than red blood cells.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Exercise 1: Questions 1 – 5

Listen to an article on “The Himba of the northwest” and answer the questions that follow on the lines provided. You will hear the article twice.

1 Name one animal the Himba farm with.

............................................................................................................................ [1]

2 Who would move with the herd when the Himba trek with their animals into the Namib Desert?

............................................................................................................................ [1]

3 What does the herdboy use to give signals to the herd?

............................................................................................................................ [1]

4 In which form do the Himba people prefer to drink their milk?

............................................................................................................................ [1]

5 What do they mostly use butter-fat for?

............................................................................................................................ [1]

 [5]
Exercise 2: Questions 6 – 10

Listen to the two stories about two very clever animals and answer the questions based on these stories. You will hear the stories twice.

6 Why did the lady turn around when she saw the fox-terrier next to the road?
............................................................................................................................ [1]

7 How did she know the dog was glad to see her?
............................................................................................................................ [1]

8 What was wrong with the dog in the muddy stream?
............................................................................................................................ [1]

9 In what way did the black cow act differently from all the other cows in the paddock? Mention one way.
............................................................................................................................ [1]

10 What characteristics did the black cow show that day? Give one.
............................................................................................................................ [1]