MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Write a composition on one of the following topics. You should write between 350 – 500 words. You should pay attention to punctuation, spelling, handwriting and sentence structure.

- 1 Change and transformation in the world begins with the individual.
“Whatever we change in our world, however small, is like a rippling effect.”
Do you agree?
- 2 Write a narrative essay in which you express what your memories are made of.
- 3 Discuss how art has been influenced by technology in this century.
- 4 “Carpe Diem” means to “seize the day”! Most people believe that the past is dead and that there is no tomorrow. Discuss why it is important to live and experience each moment in your life with all your soul.
- 5 “The Namibian in me!” Write a narrative essay in which you depict your patriotism towards the country of your birth.
- 6 You are obliged to give a waitress/waiter a tip of at least ten percent of the bill as a form of gratitude for his/her services provided to you.
Do you agree with this statement?
- 7 Is there a place for traditional medicines in today’s society? Discuss this question.
- 8 Describe how the environment has changed in the world around you in the last ten years. How do you feel these changes will influence our future?
- 9 Write an essay based on the photograph entitled “Is this the legacy we are willing to leave for our next generations?”
