INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION TO CANDIDATES

- Write your answers on the separate answer book provided.
- Write your Centre Number, Candidate Number and Name on your answer book.
- Write in dark blue or black pen.
- Do not use correction fluid.

- Answer one question from the topics given.
- You should write between 350 and 500 words.
- Pay special attention to spelling, punctuation and sentence structure.
- Dictionaries are not permitted.
- The number of marks is given in brackets [ ] at the end of each question or part question.
Write a composition on one of the following topics. You should write between 350 and 500 words. You should pay attention to punctuation, spelling and handwriting.

1 His shocking revelations have shattered friendships and torn families apart. Tell his story.

2 I learned the hard way that if something is too good to be true, it probably is. Relate your story.

3 “Where are they?” someone asked. “They are dead.” I lashed out. I felt fear and sorrow, then disbelief and finally rage... Tell the story.

4 The state of the western world is so bad that I think we are all living through the beginning of the end of a great civilisation. You can sum up the reason in a five letter word, “greed”. What are your views?

5 Adult authority needs to be reasserted over children. Stressing rights without corresponding responsibilities is the reason for the disorder societies increasingly face. Do you agree?

6 We are so focussed on the future that we forget to enjoy the present. Give your views.